Women in the younger age are enthusiastic to take up the new venture, but due to family commitments and pressure they are unable to take up the responsibility of starting new business. Older women are interest to join but they neither have family support nor any debts to accomplish anything. Many of the women are not aware about the SHGs importance or they are not interested to join the SHGs as they feel it will be difficult to be bound to certain procedures and formalities. Thus, it can be concluded that local resources can be put to use if it can be properly channelized by the Government with the SHGs
