INTRODUCTION TO ACADEMIC WRITING

PG and Research Department of English organised an International Webinar on “Introduction to academic Writing” with Professor Lalith Justin, EFL Lecture, Nizwa college of Technology, Sultanate of Oman as the Research Person. An introduction is necessary to engage the reader and acquaint them with the subject, as a soft-start and orientation. The objective of the academic writing is usually included in the introduction, especially in more lengthy texts, the objective has its own subheading. Academic writing sharpens minds, teaches students how to communicate, and develops their thinking capacities and ability to understand others. 155 Undergraduate were the beneficiaries of the program.
