VISIT TO NIRMAL HRIDAY OLDAGE HOME, SENBAKKAM

DATE:19-04-2023

The Hindi students with faculty visited Nirmalhridaya Oldage home, Sempakkam, Vellore, a charitable institution for mentally and physically disabled women run by Mother Teresa sisters on 19th April 2023 as a social responsibility and spent half a day with the inmates. There were nearly 70 elderly and mentally retarded people. The students interacted with the elderly and entertained them with music, action songs and dance. The students were happy that they could bring a little happiness to the inmates. It was a rich learning experience for the staff and students. The students distributed some eatables and stationery items to them after spending a few hours with the inmates, students returned home contented.

The Hindi Association is still continuing with its excellent work focusing on the holistic development of the student community.
