Event: Atrocities on crimes against women and children

Conducted through Google meet <https://meet.google.com/vjm-sydq-mia>

The amount of violence against women has increased by many fold due to the greater exposure of women in every field of life. Women were previously restricted to the four walls of the houses and after globalization they have got the chances and opportunities to stand equally in all sectors at par with male. Women are now a day's cab drivers and they are also the CEO of top companies. There are different kinds of tools that is being used by the male dominated society to prove their Domination over the female. Eve teasing, sexual harassment, rape, domestic violence against women are these weapons used by the male to display the male superiority. . Only strict laws cannot solve the problem of women safety in India rather the implementation of these laws in a time bound manner can solve the issue to a large extent said by Dr.Anantha Ramakrishna sakhivel. Nearly 98 Cadets took part and enriched their knowledge on women safety.

Motivational Speech on Women Empowerment NCC- 03.02. 2020

The purpose of this Programme was to uncover the role of empowering women and achieving gender equality in the sustainable development. PioletJosphine,First Women Piolet, Indigo Airlines addressed the role of women across different dimensions of sustainable development is less reflected in the country. The use of a women's labour force in the economic development the country is minimal. The political sphere of the country is, by and large, reserved for men alone. The place of women in society is also relegated to contributing minimally to the social development of the country. In addition, women rights are not properly being protected in order for women to participate in various the issues of their country but are subjected to abysmal violations. Moreover, women are highly affected by environmental problems, and less emphasis is given to their participation in protecting the environment. She also stressed on the e fact that women constitute half the entire population of the country makes empowering them to be an active part of all development initiatives in the country a compelling circumstance. Nearly 264 Participated.

NCC and YRC-18.12.2019

Date: 18th December, 2019

Event: Workshop on Drug Prevention, cyber security Basic life Safety and First aid in protecting women

Prevention programs often are designed to enhance "protective factors" and to reduce "risk factors." Protective factors are those associated with reduced potential for drug use. Risk factors are those that make drug use more likely. Speakers assert that for individuals who begin using illicit substances at an early age, several risk factors may increase the likelihood of continued and problematic use in later ages, when substance-related crime becomes much more likely. Risk factors include: negative peer associations, unrealistic beliefs about the prevalence of illicit drug consumption, inconsistent or abusive parenting, school exclusion, and feelings of low self worth. Mr. Arun Kumar, Project Manager of Nirvana Foundation has also demonstrated that many of the same risk and protective factors apply to other behaviors such as youth violence, delinquency, school dropout, risky sexual behaviors, and teen pregnancy.

Dr. Geetha

PRINCIPAL AUXILIUM COLLEGE (Autonomous) Gandhi Nagar, Vellore - 632 006. Vellore District, Tamil Nadu.
---

Responding to these risky behaviors before they become problematic can be difficult. Furthermore, it is important to understand that risk factors do not, in and of themselves, determine drug use and abuse. Dr. Geetha Professor of Vellore Institute of Technology shared multiple risk factors have found that risk factors have a cumulative effect – i.e., the more risk factors a youth is exposed to, the greater the likelihood that he or she will engage in delinquent or violent behavior. She also gave reference towards Casestudies that a 10-year-old exposed to six or more risk factors is ten times more likely to be violent by age 18 as a child of the same age who is exposed to only one factor. Nearly 215 participated in this program organized by Lt. Dr. E. Anitha Alice, NCC Officer in collaboration with Nirvanan Foundation Chennai.
